

FACT SHEET – ASANJA RUAHA ‘NDEMBO’

ASANJA RUAHA ‘NDEMBO’ is situated in the Southern part of Ruaha National Park, the largest National Park in Tanzania. The Camp boasts of a peaceful and idyllic setting full of wilderness with a variety of wildlife and bird watching, like no other.

‘Ndembo’ means elephant in the local Bantu Hehe language (the ethnic and linguistic group based in Iringa & Ruaha). Recent studies shows, that there has been an increase in the population of elephants in the area, since the building of the camp, leading us to believe that the elephants that left in the past due to poaching are now making their way back as they feel secure and protected with the camp’s presence. Thus to honor their return, we felt privileged to name it after these mighty beings.

The clients comfort and safety are our priority and all our staff, who are highly trained professional in their respective field of work, will go out of their way to guarantee the utmost level of hospitality. The cuisine at the camp are all fresh, scrumptious and delicious as we take pride in sourcing all ingredients fresh and local.
