I. THE REVĪVŌ MEANING | 3

A MEANINGFUL BRAND PROPOSITION

Working around the idea of rebirth, as a new way to look at the world, our brand name REVTVO means "I live again" in Latin.

A LIFE CHANGING EXPERIENCE

Our mission is to redefine well-being by blending time-honoured traditions with cutting-edge science, delivering transformative experiences that restore balance, enhance vitality, and promote longevity.

A CONSISTENT OBJECTIVE

Our vision is to evolve into the global benchmark in integrative wellness, where expertise, innovation, and holistic practices converge to create sustainable health and well-being, while positively supporting local communities and embracing regenerative practices to help shape a healthier future.

A COMMITMENT TO SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

We are committed to making today's and tomorrow's world more sustainable and significantly reducing our environmental impact through green best practices. The core elements revolve around reducing waste, saving energy, and cutting down on water usage. We recognise the importance of safer products for our guests and employees, as well as the environment.

OUR TEAM

Our coaches, therapists, and movement specialists are all highly skilled and trained in their area of expertise. We ensure every guest will be guided and cared for with compassion and understanding. We employ only those candidates who exemplify excellence, kindness, and authenticity and who are dedicated to helping make a positive difference in people's lives.

MINDFUL IMMERSIONS

We offer unique immersions lending guests an opportunity to create lasting changes in different aspects of their life. At the core of our REVTVO concept, is awareness and activation of the mind-body connection. This method can be integrated into any immersion we offer, allowing those interested in delving deeper into mindful principles and practices to do so.

MOVEŌ

Our MOVEO itness center boasts a large yoga room for up to 70 people, a well-equipped gym, a lap pool for aqua workouts, a landscaped park for outdoor exercises, and most importantly, a wellness coach to assist our guests in achieving their goals. We believe lifestyle changes require support, perseverance, and a receptive body. MOVEO's active classes blend numerous training techniques and therapeutic practices offering private and small group classes to cultivate physical, mental, and emotional well-being.

NŪTRIŌ

NOTRIO is the food and beverage concept at REVTVO, which includes a restaurant: "NO", a Healthy Bar: "Tri", and a pool side lounge: "O". Each aspect revolves around a simple philosophy-fresh, wholesome, organic and balanced.

We believe in serving food as close to its natural state as possible. Our mission is to sharpen and delight tastebuds with wholesome organic food that continuously supports health and wellbeing.

NOCTURNŌ

At REVTVO, we take sleep very seriously, which is why it's one of the vital foundations of your stay. From foods conducive for sleep and in-room sleep amenities and spa treatments, we leave no stone unturned when it comes to ensuring our guests discover the best night's sleep possible - after all, sleep is the gateway to wellness. In-room options include a Rhythmic Breathing Meditation Lamp, designed by Lena Saleh. The lamp has different lighting modes, from soft amber at night to stimulating blue light in the morning. These lighting modes encourage a better sleep routine and can be used alongside guided breathing exercises and evening meditations.

SIGNATURE WELLNESS RETREATS

We do not believe in quick ixes. We believe in educating and facilitating transformational techniques that are guaranteed to fundamentally change you to the core when consistently practiced over time.

We offer six Signature Immersive Retreats, each designed to meet individual goals. Starting from a minimum 3-night stay, every program is tailored through a comprehensive wellness evaluation, integrating science-based treatments, personalized nutrition, holistic therapies, and targeted movement to support your well-being.

DE-STRESS & RELAX

Stress can affect your health on every level - physical, mental, and emotional. In this retreat, we'll explore your lifestyle and key stressors while introducing practical tools to manage and reduce their impact.

Set in a tranquil sanctuary, the experience blends restorative spatreatments, mindfulness practices, and energising yoga sessions—leaving you deeply rested, relaxed, and rejuvenated.

MINDFULNESS & EMOTIONAL BALANCE

At REVĪVŌ, we see mental and emotional well-being as vital to overall health. Our Mindfulness & Emotional Balance Retreat is designed to help you find calm amidst life's challenges and build lasting tools for emotional clarity. With guidance from our expert wellness coaches, you'll explore holistic therapies including chakra clearing, yoga, energy healing, and breathwork - each one crafted to restore balance, cultivate inner peace, and support emotional resilience.

SLEEP WELL & RESET

Restful, high-quality sleep is key to a vibrant, healthy life. REVĪVŌ's Sleep Well Retreat is designed to uncover and address the root causes of disrupted sleep, helping you restore balance and establish lasting, healthy sleep patterns. Guided by our expert team, you'll explore personalised solutions to improve rest, regulate rhythms, and support deep, rejuvenating sleep - both during your stay and long after you return home.

DETOX & CLEANSE

Toxins aren't just physical - they can also stem from mental and emotional stress. REVĪVŌ's Detox & Cleanse Retreat takes a holistic approach, combining cleansing spa therapies, detoxifying cuisine, and energising movement to restore balance across body, mind, and soul. With expert guidance, you'll explore techniques like mindful breathwork, holistic nutrition, and rejuvenating treatments to support renewal and clarity. Leave feeling lighter, revitalised, and empowered to embrace a cleaner, healthier lifestyle.

IMMUNITY AND GUT BALANCE

Often called your "second brain," the gut plays a crucial role in overall well-being, housing trillions of bacteria and most of your immune cells. Its balance affects everything from digestion and energy to mental health and hormonal function. Poor diet, stress, sleep issues, and environmental factors can disrupt this delicate ecosystem. This retreat helps you identify harmful triggers, support healthy gut bacteria, and rebalance your lifestyle. Whether you're managing digestive concerns or boosting immunity, you'll gain evidence-based tools for lasting resilience and vitality.

SUSTAINABLE WEIGHT LOSS

Experience a fusion of spa treatments, nourishing cuisine, and energising fitness—all designed to support lasting weight loss and a vibrant, balanced lifestyle.

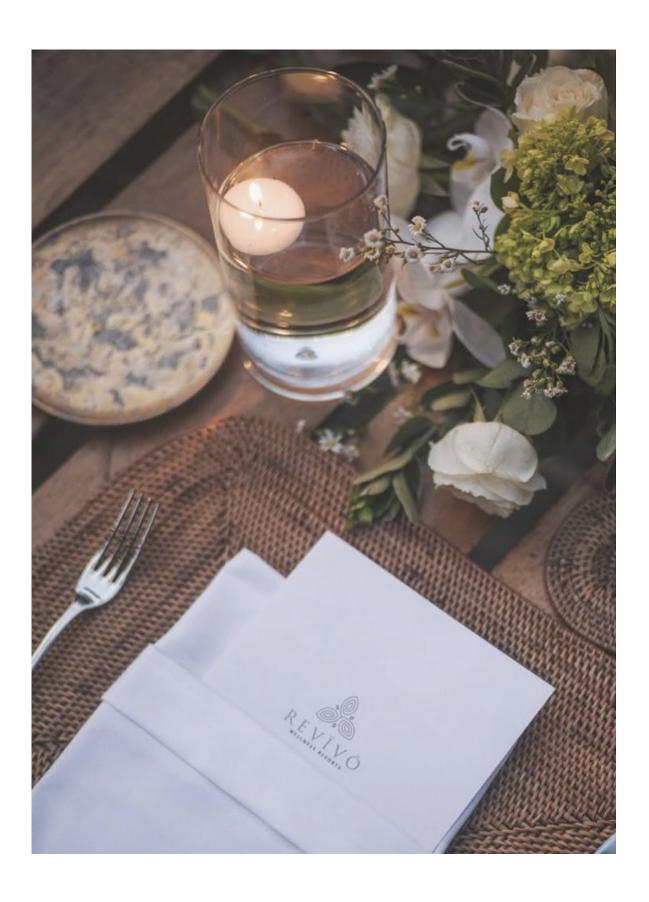

Our holistic approach addresses the root causes of weight gain through mindful eating, lifestyle coaching, and personalised nutrition consultations. Whether you aim to shed weight, sculpt your body, or simply feel your best, this retreat offers the tools and support you need. Leave feeling lighter, stronger, and more confident—empowered to sustain your well-being long after your stay.
